SALT LAKE CITY – Local immigration experts will hold a press conference today (Friday), February 25, 2011, to expose erroneous claims regarding immigration made at the Utah state legislature. Their presentation will highlight several of the exaggerated statements that are being used in the legislature to justify state immigration enforcement, those of which cannot be substantiated in fact. They will also address the unintended economic impacts of such bills on businesses and agriculture, and discuss new data on immigration rates and crime in Utah.

WHAT: Press Conference -- Exposing Fallacies on Immigration Claims

WHEN: Friday, February 25, 2011, 3:00 pm

WHERE: Utah State Capitol, fourth floor at the Statehood/First Governor display case, SW balcony

PRESENTERS: Todd Landfried Arizona Employers for Immigration Reform, Charlie Morgan, Professor of Sociology, Brigham Young University

CONTACT: Stephanie Pitcher, Enriching Utah Coalition Coordinator, 801.791.1124

Mr. Landfried and Mr. Morgan will accept questions from the media.
